There are 26 school days left this school year and everyday starting today, we will have a letter for the day. Today's letter is A. A stands for accomplishment. Accomplishment means... "something that has been achieved successfully." Today, lift your head up high and feel successful as you have shown accomplishment by finishing your Math SBA. Tomorrow's letter will be B.

Next week, there is a show called the 25th Annual Putnam Country Spelling Bee. There are flyers around the school for more information on how to purchase the tickets.
